

TAGDev 2.0
Transforming African Agricultural Universities to meaningfully contribute to Africa's Growth and Development

AGLEAD BUSINESS COMPETITION

Are you an Egerton University student interested and experienced in running a retail store?

Egerton University through AGLEAD Incubation Hub is offering its students a chance to lease two retail stores located at the Junior Common Room (JCR).

The award of a lease will be done through a competitive selection process subject to the following conditions;

- Applicants should be below the age of 35 years.
- Applicants should be current undergraduate students of Egerton University in groups of 3 – 5 members.
- Applicants should have demonstrated experience in operating a retail business.

Applicants are kindly notified that operation of retail stores by successful applicants will be subject to additional terms and conditions which will be stipulated and enforced by AGLEAD Incubation Hub and Egerton University.

Interested groups of students are requested to send their application letter, CVs, certified academic transcripts and proof of experience in operating a retail business to aglead@egerton.ac.ke by close of business 30th October 2024.

AGLEAD BUSINESS COMPETITION

Are you an AGLEAD Incubation Hub alumnus interested in supplying products to retail stores?

Egerton University through AGLEAD Incubation Hub is offering three AGLEAD Enterprises Alumni a chance to supply products to the two retail stores located at the Junior Common Room (JCR).

The products to be supplied are classified as follows;

Class	Product
CLASS A	Baked goods and other pastries
CLASS B	Stationery, Toiletries and other sanitary products
CLASS C	Soft drinks and Dairy products

The selection of suppliers will be done through a competitive process subject to the following conditions;

- Applicants should be below the age of 35 years.
- Applicants should have a registered business.
- Applicants should only apply to supply one class of products

Applicants are kindly notified that supply of products to the retail stores by successful applicants will be subject to additional terms and conditions which will be stipulated and enforced by AGLEAD Incubation Hub and Egerton University.

Interested applicants are requested to send their application letter, CVs and proof of business registration to aglead@egerton.ac.ke by close of business 30th October 2024.